Along the Loop

Crescent Trail
Crescent Trail begins by Crescent Spring leading up the backside of the Crescent Hotel. Crescent Lower Trail, located across from the Crescent Hotel at the trailhead, takes walkers and bikers along a gradual descent leading to Harmon Park with benches to enjoy a natural setting and watchable wildlife.

Spring Garden Trail
Directly across the street from Harmon Park is the Spring Garden Loop Trail. ADA accessible. Take the single track trail or the ADA accessible road trail. At the end of the ADA trail, there is a picnic table to relax or continue along to connect with the Harmon Park Loop.

Crescent Spring & Carnegie Library
Crescent Spring is located next to the Carnegie Library along the loop trail. Carnegie Library was completed in 1912 by the philanthropist Andrew Carnegie, who, during the early 1900’s was responsible for helping hundreds of communities establish public libraries. Take the stairs next to the Crescent Spring to continue the loop to the Crescent Hotel.

Upper Spring St. “Boulevard”
Where King Street meets Spring Street you arrive at the Boulevard. You can walk along upper Spring Street which is referred to as “The Boulevard.” The street has lovely houses and was called “silk stockings,” by the working class folks over on East Mountain. Along the Boulevard you can see such treasures as Crescent Cottage, Floyd House, Rosalie House and the Fuller House.

Harmon Park
Eureka Springs city park that is .24 mile from the Crescent Hotel Trailhead. Harmon Park features a Skate Park, Big Playground for kids, Trails and Picnicking. Harmon Park has Parking and Public Restrooms.

The Bark Park - Adjacent to Harmon Park is the Eureka Springs Bark Park. Offering a fenced shaded area for pets to roam freely with owners. There is a fenced section for large dogs and a separate fenced area for smaller dogs.
